CITIZENS ASSOCIATION OF GEORGETOWN

WORKING FOR YOU AND A BETTER GEORGETOWN COMMUNITY

PROTECTING GEORGETOWN'S HISTORIC CHARACTER

Initiated landmark legislation to designate Georgetown the first historic district in America • Advocates for zoning regulations to protect the character of our residential neighborhoods • Provides information on historic preservation regulations and monitors official review boards and agencies • Conducts oral history project

IMPROVING OUR COMMUNITY

Hosts monthly meetings featuring speakers on hot or historic topics and community issues • Sponsors summer Concerts In the Parks and several free membership socials • Spearheaded the Georgetown Waterfront Commission to make the planned waterfront park an asset to the entire community • Plants hundreds of new trees and maintains existing trees through the Trees for Georgetown committee • Established and expanded the CAG Public Safety and Guard Program to make Georgetown safer and coordinates block captains • Informs members on issues, events and community happenings via our monthly newsletter, the GeorgetownForum listserv and our website at www.cagtown.org • Sponsors Priority Merchant Discount Program

ADVOCACY FOR RESIDENTS

Represents citizens' interests before local legislative bodies and review boards on critical issues such as parking, trash and recycling, preservation and ABC voluntary agreements and licenses • Works actively with the Metropolitan Police Department and other community groups on public safety issues
