Visions of Georgetown: CAG Presents Georgetown ARTS 2012

The Citizens Association of Georgetown (CAG) is seeking Georgetown-based artists to participate in a show of artwork, at the House of Sweden from February 16 - 20, 2012.

- The show is open to artists who either are current residents of Georgetown or who have studios in Georgetown.
- The show will take place from Thursday, February 16, through Monday, February 20 and will feature a reception on Thursday evening from 6-9pm. Special events to be announced.
- Work may be for sale or for display only, as the artist wishes. CAG will process sales and pay artists at the end of the sale. CAG takes no commission on sales.
- Artists pay a $50 entry fee to CAG to defray the cost of the show. In addition, each participating artist must complete a 3-hour volunteer shift during the show.
- The show is open to artists working in the following media: painting, photography, sculpture, prints, 2D and 3D mixed media. We cannot accept jewelry or anything requiring electricity. Pieces accepted into the show should be of a suitable nature to be viewed by families with children.
- There is no jury. Entry is first-come, first-served. Please get your application and payment in promptly to secure your space in the show.
- Artists may submit up to four pieces for inclusion in the show. The final number displayed will depend on space available. (Maximum size per piece is 48" in the largest dimension.) All 2D work must be properly framed and wired for hanging, or it will not be accepted.
- We will advise you the exact time to deliver your work to the show site at The House of Sweden.
- To enter, please provide the information below in an email and submit 3 jpegs of your artwork to cagmail@cagtown.org. Then send a printed copy of your application and check for $50 (made out to CAG/Art Show) to Citizens Association of Georgetown, 1365 Wisconsin Avenue NW, Washington DC 20007 by January 24.
