

VOLUNTEERING FOR CAG ORAL HISTORY PROJECT

The Georgetown Oral History Project will collect, record, and make public recollections of the experience of living in Georgetown over time, in order to enhance appreciation of and personalize the significance of our unique community. Through individual interviews, long-time and former residents of Georgetown will be invited to contribute their experiences of Georgetown’s buildings, developments, events, personalities, and ways of life. Audio recordings and transcriptions of these recollections and photos of participants will be preserved and made accessible to the general public. The architectural richness and cohesiveness of Georgetown’s physical form will serve to focus but not limit the memories collected. It is expected that, with funding from a variety of potential sources, the project will continue well into the future.

We are seeking volunteers to conduct interviews -- training will be provided. We would also appreciate suggestions of people to interview. Please use the forms below, or call (202-337-7313) or email (cagmail@cagtown.org) the CAG office; or call Nola Klamberg at 202-342-3195 .

FORMS: fax to 202-333-1088), send to CAG office: 1365 Wisconsin Ave NW, Suite 200, Washington DC 20007; or email CAG office at cagmail@cagtown.org.
